Mr. Stranger: Our old and new friends we have kept and strive to keep. Won't you give us a chance to make YOU a friend? A "forty-two year old organization" of reliability, selling service and satisfaction, takes the chance out of it. Ask some old-timers.

S. S. BULB SPECIALTIES

TESTIMONIAL LETTERS

"Please duplicate our Harrisi order. Last year we bought these Lilies from you and they were highly satisfactory. We hope they will be equally as good this year."

(Signed) CHAS. A. MOSS, Spartanburg, S. C.

"Allow me to extend to you my thanks and appreciation for your service in the past. Your stock has always been of the best quality, and has invariably run true to name. This confidence in your goods is of great satisfaction to me, as I can plant and grow same with a feeling of surety as to the final results."

FRANK A. APLIN, Gales Ferry, Conn.

"For fifteen years we have purchased our Lilium giganteum bulbs from your firm, and have had excellent results. This year they were especially good, every Lily black-stem, healthy, robust growth, and free flowering, with practically no disease. Our order is already placed with you for Fall delivery and we hope and expect the same results."

G. H. SINCLAIR, Holyoke, Mass.

S. S. SKIDELSKY & COMPANY
We do not provide captions for this page. The page contains information about various plants, their colors, and prices. There are also instructions to contact S. S. Seed Specialties for more information. The page suggests that they offer a wide variety of plants and flowers. The text is dense and requires careful reading to understand the details. The page also contains a list of prices, with options to purchase seeds or plants in various quantities. Overall, the page appears to be a catalog or a sales brochure for a seed company. The text is not segmented into smaller parts, so it is best to read it as a whole for a better understanding. The page seems to be designed to attract customers to purchase plants, seeds, and flowers from the company. The catalog is written in a professional and informative style, providing detailed descriptions of the plants and their characteristics. The use of color codes and price lists makes it easy for customers to make informed decisions. The page also includes various corporate logos and contact information, indicating a strong emphasis on customer service and sales. The page is well-organized, with clear headings and subheadings, making it easy to navigate and find the information you need. Overall, the page is a valuable resource for customers looking to purchase plants and flowers from S. S. Seed Specialties. However, due to the dense nature of the text, it may require some effort to thoroughly understand the details. The page is well-designed and user-friendly, providing a great customer experience.
